Entertainments and fairs and the bustness done by little merchants who keep lemonade and candy stands continue to swell the daily receipts of the Sick Dabies' Fund. The beauty of The Evening World's work is that it is a charity supported entirely by children whose little hearts are touched by the summer sufhearts are touched by the summer suf-ferings of their less fortunate little brothers and sisters. Nearly every penny of the Fund comes from young folks who thus early learn a lesson of charity that may cling to them in all after years

The good work done by the Fund physicians is understood and valued by all. Nearly one thousand sick infants of the poor are treated every week, and in many of the cases it means that the little life is saved.

Centributions to the Fund should be sent care of Cashier of World, Pulitzer Building, New York City.

R. H. Macy & Co.'s Attractions Are Their Low Prices

Our China and Glass Offerings Continue to Distinctly Eclipse the Efforts of United Competition.

The Macy leadership in the domain of China and Glass grows more absolute with every passing year. The business is carried forward by the thorough and decisive power of peerless values. Sonorous boasts-blatant advertising-have no chance with such a force. Our organization controls facilities that naturally command supremacy.

We Carry the Largest Stock in

New Yorkers are accustomed to big figures. Mere bulk never astonishes and rarely interests them. The fact that for over twenty-five years we have continuously had the largest assortment of China and Glass has no important claim upon your attention. That is why we do not periodically print an inventory of our China and Glass assets. Our appeal for your preference and patronage is more direct, more personal and genuinely more logical. You don't care a rap whether we have a dozen plates or a billion—if a dozen is all you want. and the price is all you expect. We apologize for informing you that our stock aggregates over a million dollars. The statement is literally true, but it is of small concern, and made simply to prove that we are superior to competition in every detail of the China and Glass business.

Special Resources and Advantages.

We own and operate European China and Glass factories, decorating shops and potteries, and our American Cut Glass works have a world-wide reputation.

Practical men and women do comprehend that not until other dealers secure the advantages we possess can they successfully claim to equal our bargains. However, they can talk—they can be romantic and Quixotic. But you are at liberty to reserve the privilege of not taking their words seriously,

Decorated Dinner Sets.

We are never undersold. That's the crystallization of all our China arguments.

Gauge our methods by the way we are selling Decorated lancy, artistic shapes. These are the Dinner Sets. That's a fair test. We choose goods of the three basic and cardinal qualities of highest character to prove the Macy leadership,
